MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: DCI Luncheon with Secretary Shultz, Friday, 31 August 1984

1. The DCI began the discussion by noting his growing concern over the leak problem. In the way of a solution, he showed a copy of a memorandum prepared by Bob Gates on the subject; the Gates memo calls for more restrictive dissemination of U.S. intelligence. Shultz, in response, asked that the Agency consider implementing those steps but without announcing them formally. His suggestion, as he noted, was intended to lessen the likelihood that such steps will cause a "big splash."

3. The discussion then turned to the hostile presence issue and an upcoming IG/CI meeting.

4. Secretary Shultz then noted that he had read the DDI memo on the state of the Soviet leadership. He wondered what we could say about policy differences between the older generation and the younger--those in their 50's and 60's.

5. Deputy Secretary Dam and Director Casey then discussed the legislative strategy re: the continuing resolution. The DCI also raised the subject of
